

H&Q advises on SCMO2 sale to Argano, a Trinity Hunt Partners portfolio company

Atlanta, GA, June 16, 2021 – SCMO2, a private company based in Atlanta, announced today that it has agreed to sell the business to Argano, a portfolio company of Trinity Hunt Partners. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

SCMO2 is an industry-leading provider of strategic SAP supply chain consulting services. The Company employs over 50 people and provides its services to leading manufacturers, chemical companies, healthcare organizations and pharmaceutical companies throughout the United States and abroad.

Headquartered in Atlanta, leading supply chain planning firm SCMO₂ was founded in 2003 and achieved SAP Gold Partner status in 2018. The company has built a strong reputation within the supply chain management (SCM) community by focusing on pragmatic and elegant solutions to complex challenges. SCMO₂ has become the go-to partner when projects need expert management and businesses require rapid and effective solutions.

Matt Campbell, CEO of SCMO2, and the existing executive management team will remain with the business in a day-to-day capacity. SCMO2 will continue to operate as a subsidiary of Argano.

Said Campbell, “We are excited about partnering with Argano and Trinity Hunt Partners and believe that this transaction will provide a strong base from which to continue the success SCMO2 has achieved since its founding. The Company has grown tremendously in recent years and the expertise that THP/Argano brings through its significant experience in owning similar companies will further accelerate that growth. We appreciate this opportunity to work together to create a unique asset in our industry and are grateful for the support of our employees, customers and shareholder. I would also like to thank the team at H&Q Advisory Partners for helping us through this process. They did a wonderful job and we would certainly recommend them to anyone considering a merger, acquisition, capital raise or really any sort of corporate transaction.”

“SCMO₂ is a leader in supply chain management, having developed an unrivaled repository of process and solution knowledge that helps companies improve how they plan, sell and deliver in a world of increasing speed and complexity,” said Argano CEO, and former Co-CEO of PublicisSapient, Chip Register. “They are thought leaders and it’s in their culture to invest in relationships and reinforce a level of trust that drives results. This in turn leads to a repeat business rate of more than 90 percent. SCMO₂’s expertise in supply chain deepens Argano’s ability to deliver cloud-based Digital Operating Platforms, supporting complex selling and fulfillment environments from commerce to cash to close.”
